

lime&coconut CAFE

Here are the important things you should know about lime and coconut's food.

Every meal has our heart and soul in it. Combine that heart and soul with the freshest local ingredients (YAY! Supporting local farmers) and you end up with a taste sensation, that not only leaves you satisfied but healthier.

Speaking of healthier, just don't mock it before you try it! Lime and Coconut accommodates meals for dairy and wheat intolerances, even steering away from those dreaded refined sugars. Many of the meals and desserts you might just be enjoying right this second could be outrageously healthy for you! Cardboard is not our specialty, awesome meals are!

Welcome to our store, please relax and have a great time. It's our goal to provide you with an experience, worthy of return. Oh!... if you get stuck and can't decide what to choose, let us know! We love chatting about flavours.
